

2020 APBA Scorer's Test

BOOKS NEEDED:

CURRENT SCORER'S HANDBOOK

CURRENT CATEGORY RULE BOOKS

For Stock, Mod, and Pro you will need all three rule books

CURRENT GENERAL SAFETY AND RACING RULES

Recently approved rules will be printed in the Propeller Magazine will also apply

The purpose of this test is to have scorers read the current Scorer's Handbook, Category Rule Books, including the General Racing Rules, and General Safety Rules.

This test is required to pass every even year and will be good for two years. If you are not current you MUST pass the test on the odd year. All scorers MUST follow the time guidelines as set by the APBA rule book.

SCORERS WHO FAIL TO DO SO WILL BE REMOVED FROM THE APPROVED LIST.

To become an approved scorer, you must complete and pass the scorer's handbook section and all sections for the categories you wish to score. This test is set as True or False scenarios and/or questions covering each category. There is a separate section for Stock/Mod/PRO, J, OPC, Inboard, Inboard Endurance, Offshore, Vintage, and Special Events.

If you are a chief scorer on a sanction which lists multiple categories run during the event, please remember the APBA General Racing Rules state that:

A CHIEF SCORER MUST BE APPROVED IN ALL CATEGORIES LISTED ON THE SANCTION.

1 point

Mark only one oval.

True

False

2. Pete was having a problem controlling his boat through the turns, hit a buoy and damaged it. He kept racing. The race officials saw this and Pete was given a one lap penalty as per OPC Rule 10, par 2. The race was red flagged a few laps later. All boats, including Pete, were brought to the dock for a restart. The boats were lined up as per OPC Rule 7 par 2. Pete's one(1) lap penalty will not be assessed until the completion of the heat. *

True

False

4. There are 26 boats at your event so the race committee decides to split them into two groups for the qualifying. All eligible boats will race in the final. After each group has completed their qualifying heats you need to combined the two groups together to get the lineup for the final. You take both drivers with 1st place for their group and look at their laps, if they have the same combined laps you then look at their combined times. The driver with the fastest combined times will start 1st and the other driver will start 2nd. You continue to do this with each place. *

7. Johnny was new to racing and loves the colors red and white. He painted his boat white and had his number painted in red. He could see it from very far away, so he was sure the scorers could see it. He also loved the number he used for his favorite go-cart, so he put that number on his SST45, even though it was not what was printed on his membership card. It is ok to use his numbers with these colors. * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- True
 False

8. When the schedule for the weekend was posted there were 2 qualifying heats on Saturday for each class and one final on Sunday for each class. Johnny hit something in the water during the first qualifying heat and blew a hole in his boat. He didn't worry too much because, even though his teammate had registered and run in the first heat he knew he would not mind if Johnny used his equipment the rest of the weekend. The teammate knew Johnny was faster and would probably do better so he said he could use his boat in the second qualifying heat scheduled that day. Johnny was not happy when the officials said, no he could not compete in the 2nd heat using his teammate's boat. He can use that boat on Sunday but not Saturday. * 1 point
